

Please leave New Jersey's "Do not call" law alone. We have never had so much peace of mind, especially from 4PM to bedtime, from unsolicited callers who's products we have no interest in. If you do mess with our law, then require the caller to give us their home phone number so we can call them anytime we feel like it! And your home phone numbers so we can call you at home after we get receive a disturbing call!